Manufactured strictly from Bavarian hops and Utah malt, we can guarantee it to be a tonic of superior quality, second to none in the United States, and is found on draught in the majority of the saloons throughout the western country. If you use beer at home, try our Extra Pale; it is now bottled and ready for the market. We charge only $2.50 per case of two dozen quarts, delivered to any address in the city, bottles to be returned. Keep the beer cold to obtain the right flavor. JACOB MORITZ, General Manager.

THE NATIONAL GUARD

Governor Wells, Adjutant General Burton and Brigadier General Cannon are on an "inspection tour" and will remain until the first of the week. During the absence of the party Lieutenant Colonel H. M. Lund is acting adjutant general as well as acting brigade commander.

Within a few weeks there is expected to arrive a consignment of supplies for the quartermaster's department, recently ordered. The shipment will include Kahki uniforms, hats, and other seasonal articles.

Company D, the infant of the guard, drew a complete line of equipment recently and is now drilling regularly on Tuesday evenings at their own armory.

The battery resumed artillery drill on Monday after having completed their review of guard duty.

The board of survey has reported upon the case of Captain Summers, it now being made possible for the troop to elect a captain to fill a long felt want. Captain Summers will be transferred to a staff position pending the settlement of his losses.

Troop A was inspected last Wednesday, first in the squads, then in troop formation, by Lieutenant Smith.

The signal corps adjourned last Thursday on account of the Herrera-Downey mill. The "blow out" promised by Lieutenants Smith and Skidmore for the corps will occur in two weeks. That the whole corps will turn out to be presumed, the character of these events having long ago become well understood by the "Signalites."

That Captain Greenwald will be elected lieutenant colonel is looked upon as a certainty. While the signal corps will regret their loss they rejoice in his advancement. He has been a very faithful officer and his new shoulder straps will only serve in part to repay him for his untiring efforts for the betterment of the guard as in particular.

Some of those pessimistically inclined individuals who take it upon themselves to forecast the disruption of the guard as a result of the shaking up it is now undergoing, only have to look backward to see the militia rise many times from conditions much worse than they are at the present day. That the guard is about to enter upon an era of unbounded prosperity is daily developing. If the head of the guard needs adjusting the governor will see to it that it is done; if the fault is in the lower officers they will be satisfactorily dealt with. The guard is bound to flourish and needs but recruiting to aid it in its progress, together with what is now going on.

In an order recently issued from the office of the adjutant general, the first battalion is designated as being composed of Companies E, H and D, stationed at Bountiful and Salt Lake. The second battalion consists of Companies A, P and G, stationed at Nephi, Manti and Provo. An election of a major for the second battalion by its officers and an election of a lieutenant colonel for the first battalion by the officers of the entire regiment is ordered, the ballots to be in on or before July 11. A board of officers to canvass the returns and report to the adjutant general is appointed, consisting of Colonel John D. Spencer, Major Glendinning and Lieutenant A. W. Caine, jr.

The officers of Company D are the first to appear in the new olive drab service uniform.

The following have received their appointments in Company D: Sergeants, A. L. Johnson, A. D. Sinclair; quartermasters, D. C. Williamson, O. H. Hasting, C. F. Bellemore; corporals, S. W. Tallifero, F. A. Ball, Clarence Raybould, W. L. Jones, Alvin Townsend. The following enlistments have been made: C. D. Peck, A. T. Folland, L. D. Clawson, H. V. Altire, H. G. Schaefer, F. A. Bull, J. B. Millner.

Corporal Moore of Troop A has made application for furlough and has requested that he be reduced to the ranks.

The friends of Lieutenant Colonel H. M. Lund are making many endeavors to state him for colonel of the First regiment. Determined efforts, however, are being made to induce Colonel Park, resigned, to accept his old position again. Under the present regime the colonel "has his doubts about it."

As yet none of the companies has reported for target practice. The range will be in much better shape this season owing to the assignment of Sergeant Burkhardt to act as range sergeant. The range will always be in condition when the companies report for practice. This season the silhouette targets will be done away with, the bull's eye being substituted, giving better results from a percentage standpoint in the final reckoning of a season's scores.

Captain Call of Bountiful was in town Thursday in the interests of Company E.

Sergeant Burkhardt is directed in orders to report to Major Heywood, commanding the First regiment.

Major Heywood was down from Layton on business and military matters last Friday. The major contemplates an early retirement, and if he does not follow his mind the national guard will lose a very efficient officer.
